International Workshop: Current Topics in Bilingualism with a Focus on Heritage Speakers of Turkish and Romance Languages

08.08.2016, University of Cologne, Germany

Session on Turkish

10:00 - 11:00

Ayşe Gürel, Boğaziçi Üniversitesi, İstanbul

Morphological processing in Turkish-English bilinguals: Implications for the bilingual mental lexicon

11:00 – 11:45

Elif Bamyaci, Universität zu Köln

Representation of conceptual structures in grammar of heritage bilingual speakers

11:45 – 12:30

Seckin Arslan, Universität Potsdam

How do Turkish heritage speakers process grammatical evidentiality?

Session on Romance Languages

14:30 – 15:30

Silvina Montrul, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Heritage Language Development

15:30 – 15:45

Coffee Break

15:45 – 16:30

Katrin Schmitz, Bergische Universität Wuppertal

The monolingual baseline in heritage language research: problematic evidence from studies with Italian and Spanish heritage speakers in Germany

16:30 – 17:15

Jacopo Torregrossa, Universität Hamburg

(in collaboration with Christiane Bongartz)

Narrative production by bilingual and heritage speakers: understanding the role of cognition and literacy

17:15 – 17:30

Coffee Break

17:30 - 18:15

Eva Knopp, Universität zu Köln

Bilingual narrative competence in different types of heritage speakers

18:15 – 18:30

Closing Session

---

This WS is supported by the German Science Foundation with the project "Special Indefinites in Discourse" (HE 6893/14-1).